THE NEW BOAT IN THE LEAD

Constitution Outsaill Columbia and Independence.

LATTER YACHT FAR ASTERN

WIND LIGHT AND NOT GOOD FOR THE TRIAL RACE.

After an Hour and a Quarter Over the 50-Mile Course the Constitution Was Three Minutes Ahead of the Columbia.

BATEMAN'S POINT, R. I., July 6.—The yachts Constitution, Columbia and Independence started in a 50-mile race today. The wind was about eight knots. The Constitution crossed the starting line at 12:03, the Columbia at 12:10 and the Independence at 12:12:15. The Columbia was handicapped 15 seconds. At first the Hirschboch boats left the Boston craft nearly a quarter mile behind.

The Columbia and the Independence pulled up on the two others until she seemed on nearly even terms. The Constitution had extra weight and the Independence jacked and crossed the wake of the others, going out to sea wind hunting.

Later, at 1:09, the Independence tacked to the port bow and the Columbia to the starboard bow. At that time she was over two and a half miles astern of the Constitution, which led the Columbia by half a mile.

The weather was very nice and there was difficulty in making out the position of the yachts.

At 1:20, an hour and fifteen minutes of sailing the Constitution was leading the Columbia by about three minutes and both boats were fully a mile and a half astern of the Independence.

The Columbia was still very light and the Independence was very light and a little south of east. All three boats were on the port tack, with the Independence far to leeward.

CAPTURED 1000 FILIPINOS

Bellarmino, After a Sharp Chase, Surrendered His Forces and Arms to Col. Wint.

MANILA, July 6.—The forces of the insurgent leader Bellarmino, which recently have been operating around Donsel, Province of Sorsogon, were driven across the mountains by the Second Infantry and finally captured by the Sixth Cavalry. Bellarmino, with 1000 men and 24 guns, surrendered to Col. Wint at Albay, capital of the province of that name. One hundred more rifles will be surrendered tomorrow.

In the day the official announcement of the surrender of Bellarmino was made. According to this account, Bellarmino, who has been operating in the provinces of Sorsogon, surrendered Thursday last at Legaspi, on Albany Bay, with 32 officers, 300 men and 24 guns and ammunition. The insurgent president of that section of the country and many Filipinos accompanied Bellarmino, who gave himself up to Col. Theo J. Wint of the Sixth Cavalry.

In all, since June 10, insurgents have surrendered in this way. The last regiment came from China with Gen. Chaffee. Before disembarking at Legaspi Col. Wint sent to Gen. Chaffee and asked the latter if he desired him to remain that part of the country. Gen. Chaffee replied: "Yes, but I do not command until July 4." In the week Bellarmino was cornered, in spite of the fact that many officers and cavalry could not be used in effective operations in such a country.

MISS SCHMIDT THINKS SHE MET PIRIE'S SLAYER.

Miss Schmidt Thinks She Met Pirie's Slayer.

HE POINTED PISTOL AT HER

HIS DESCRIPTION FITS THAT OF WANTED MAN.

She Was in Grove Near Vegas Station When She Encountered Him and He Departed Towards St. Charles.

A clew that City Marshal Charles Graf of Ferguson believes may solve the Pirie murder mystery was picked in his hands Friday afternoon. On Friday night he departed for St. Charles, Mo., where it is believed the assassin is hiding.

The information was furnished Marshal Graf by Chief of Detectives Desmond, and the chief concluded in unraveling of the mystery consider this the strongest clew that has yet been discovered.

Miss Schmidt, the 17-year-old daughter of Otto Schmidt, a carpenter and lumber mechanic of the St. Louis Transit Co., but who now lives at Vegas station, one mile west of St. Charles, said that she met the murderer on the day following that on which the crime was committed.

When she visited a neighbor on that day—on her way to the place where the man was walking slowly. It was Sunday, and she was examining his weapon so closely that, at first, he did not see her.

Miss Schmidt.

The path that Miss Schmidt was traversing lay alongside the place where the man was seated.

When she saw him she sprang to his feet, and, uttering an oath, leveled his revolver at her and told her if she made any outcry he would kill her.

She was greatly frightened by the demonstration. She thought at first that she was surrounded with maniacs, and, as calmly as she could, she told the man to put his revolver into his pocket.

Though the man was rough looking and was wearing a chain mail shirt, he remained at first, as she was near her home.

The man was examining his weapon so closely that, at first, he did not see her.

Later, when the Post-Dispatch reached Vegas station, it was learned that the man suspected of killing Alexander H. Pirie was read. Miss Schmidt recalled the fact that a man of that size, like Bellarmino, had been in the grove.

As the stranger had offered her no violence, she from merely pointing the revolver at her, nor great significance was paid to the incident.

SEC. MC CONKEY IS DISPLEASED

He Doesn't Approve Sidener's Revolver Ruling.

CASES WILL BE APPEALED

HE SAYS MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION WAS VIOLATED.

SECRETARY JAMES G. MC CONKEY is not pleased with the action of Police Judge Sidener in discharging all defendants charged with violating Mayor Wells' Fourth of July proclamation, and has directed City Attorney Taylor to appeal the cases on the city's behalf.

The men and boys who may have to stand a second trial as the result of Secretary McConkey's action are: Tom Quinn, 28, South Tenth street; Henry Stokes, 164 Market street; G. E. Harding and Charles A. Wood, 406 North Chestnut street; V. J. Leloue, 357 Morgan street; Charles Ryan, 318 North Market street; Samuel Kellogg, 318 North Market street; Robert Minton, 1000 Locust street. The testimony of policemen against all the defendants who were tried Friday in the case in the Circuit Court shows that they had fired blank cartridges from revolvers. The revolvers were offered in evidence in each case.

A policeman who made the arrest was asked by Judge Sidener whether the revolvers had contained blank cartridges. The policeman said he had been told that they had all contained blanks. The judge discharged the prisoners.

In the report closing the disposition of the most recent docket, reached Secretary McConkey, he expressed dissatisfaction with the entries in the 11 previous cases, with the exception of the first, for City Attorney Perry Post Taylor, and the two examined the law relative to the discharging of firearms.

Mr. McConkey then instructed Mr. Taylor to appeal all the cases to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

"The public was given sufficient warning," says Mr. McConkey, "and those who discharged firearms on the streets did so with full knowledge that they were violating the law."

Judge Sidener said Saturday: "I do not believe that the ordinance was meant to apply to the firing of blank cartridges. Blank cartridges are as harmful as dynamite firecrackers, or more harmful than large crackers, and I do not believe that the section of the ordinance which these men violated applies to such cases as these where no bullets were used and no harm could have resulted."

Secretary McConkey Saturday instructed Mr. Phillips, City Attorney, Burgess of the Wyoming street police court to take an appeal for the city from Judge Zimmerman's decision. The case in question was similar to those passed upon by Judge Sidener. Judge Zimmerman's reason for discharging the prisoner was that the offense was committed on the Fourth.

CITY OFFICIALS TAKE FIRST STEP TOWARD PUBLIC BATHS.

PROPOSED SITES INSPECTED

President Phillips and Others Interested in Bathhouse Idea Make a Trip Along the River.

President Hiriam Phillips of the Board of Public Improvements, Harbor Commissioner Alton Water Commissioner Flad, Sewer Commissioner Hermann and Police Captain Edward J. Phillips spent Saturday morning taking soundings along the northern part of the wharf for the proposed public bathhouse.

The harbor boat City of St. Louis was used by the party for their trip along the river bank and Commissioner Alton was in charge. The party left the foot of Olive street shortly before noon and stopped at several places where it has been proposed to locate public natatoriums.

Short trips were made at the foot of Bremen avenue and soundings were taken there.

The availability of the different proposed locations was discussed by the members of the board with Capt. Phillips, who is an earnest advocate of the public bathhouse idea.

The plan of the members of the board, in the absence of a sufficient appropriation to erect the proposed bathhouses at once, is to first provide at some point bathing facilities could be secured, and to place these places under police supervision.

The place where the water was also the subject of inspection by the members of the board, and points where repairs are needed were pointed out by Commissioners Alton and Phillips.

A similar trip along the southern wharf will be taken in a few days.

President Phillips left for the establishment of public bathhouses in now in the public improvements committee of the House of Delegates, and has not been reported since. Some members of the committee say, because the city has not the money for the proposed improvement.

and she remarked that someone must be in the barn yard.

McConkey arose, and, arming himself, made an investigation, but he discovered no one. That was nearly an hour after the murder, but he had not heard of it at that time.

Harold Hall, bookkeeper in the Third National Bank, lives in Dastar place, about one-half mile from the scene of the murder. That morning at about 12:30 a. m., Frank August Rust was going fishing. They had dinner at the scene of the murder and it was soon after that he and his companion, Mr. Hall, started back after dinner.

It says that while he was standing in Chambers road, he saw a buggy approach. It was light and he could see that it did not receive either the men or the conveyance. When he got home, Mrs. Freeman was waiting the men to be careful.

Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Rutledge had been walking some distance behind Mr. Freeman, Mr. Rutledge and Herbert Bremer.

William Green and Edward Green were on a Grand avenue car, standing at Virginia street and 18th street.

As the women passed the car one of the young men, it is said, made a remark about them, to which his companion responded.

The man heard the remarks and Mrs. Freeman waited the men to be careful.

Mr. Freeman and Mrs. Rutledge, according to the evidence before Judge Zimmerman, were walking some distance behind Mr. Freeman, Mr. Rutledge and Herbert Bremer.

On Sunday afternoon the great auditorium will be used for meetings simultaneously for children, men and women, from 3 to 4½ p. m., and other meetings will be held from 4 to 5 p. m., in the interest of Sabbath observance, temperance and missions. Very slight programs have been prepared for the different auditoriums and churches simultaneously for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 8 to 9 p. m., and the list of speakers includes the most eminent ministers and lecturers in the country on their special topics.

The Philadelphia tribe of baseball players went down in defeat before the St. Louis team at Delmar Park yesterday afternoon in one of the most exciting games ever played on the local diamond.

It was not until after two extra innings had been fiercely fought that the Cardinals gained the victory by a score of 3 to 2.

Murphy, the young twirler, about whom Donovan has been saying so many nice things, "made good" and completely won the hearts of the 2000 fans by his brilliant performance. The other members of his mystifying slants over the plate so fast the Philiplines were constantly puzzled.

His work was almost flawless. He kept his head and managed very easily to wiggles out of some tight places. In the eyes of the fans, this victory entitled him to share the honors of the day. He was mobbed and crowded around him after the game in an effort to carry him to the clubhouse. He dodged them after several ineffectual efforts.

Out Kruger availed his batting average by good stick work and made the most exciting play of the game by hitting out a safe hit in the eleventh, which, aided by Donahue's throw to home, brought him the winning run.

In the eleventh, McGann came up for St. Louis facing a lead of one run. He took a long time to get out, but then, much to the faint-hearted fans who had left their seats ashamed of themselves, Padden was struck off by Kruger, and O'Day gave him his base, forcing McGann to second. Wallace popped a little fly to Donahue, and Kruger came up with a double. He then hit a single to save the day. He was loudly urged to hit it out, and he proved equal to the emergency, and picked one to his liking.

McGann, however, had to leave the field, and the faint-hearted fans who had left their seats ashamed of themselves, Padden was struck off by Kruger, and O'Day gave him his base, forcing McGann to second. He was loudly urged to hit it out, and he proved equal to the emergency, and picked one to his liking.

In the eleventh, McGann came up for St. Louis facing a lead of one run. He took a long time to get out, but then, much to the faint-hearted fans who had left their seats ashamed of themselves, Padden was struck off by Kruger, and O'Day gave him his base, forcing McGann to second. Wallace popped a little fly to Donahue, and Kruger came up with a double. He then hit a single to save the day. He was loudly urged to hit it out, and he proved equal to the emergency, and picked one to his liking.

MILK BILL OFFEREDNEWS OF CITY CHURCHES

IT PROVIDES FOR INSPECTION BY CITY CHEMIST.

MR. GIBSON INTRODUCED IT

It Was Drawn Under Health Commissioner Starkloff's Direction and Is Elaborate in Details.

A new milk inspection bill, placing this work under the direct control and supervision of the health department, is before the City Council.

The measure was prepared by Health Commissioner Starkloff and was introduced by Councilman Gibson at Friday evening's meeting.

The bill proposes to abolish the present office of milk inspector, and to transfer its two analytical chemists and two practical dairymen, at salaries of $15 a month each, are to be placed to the city chemist's care, to be called upon to test the quality of milk and examine the sanitary condition of dairies.

To provide revenue to meet the largely increased expenses demanded by the bill, milk fees are to be paid by dealers in milk and cream.

For dealers selling over 16 gallons a day,

All skimmed, strained and specially prepared milk of any kind must be sold in separate vessels, plainly labeled.

The ordinance is given the sole power of approving all applications for permits for the opening of new dairies and making changes in existing ones.

The ordinance is of great length, and fixed in technical terms and figures, the standard for pure milk. It also prescribes the hours of sale, and it is provided that shall appear on the sides of milk wagons, and of those on milk cans.

A bill for suspending Webster Groves was introduced by Councilman Hedges.

The necessary parts and mains are to be laid by the Water Works Department of St. Louis the right to purchase such pipes and mains at any time. The rates are to be fixed by the local assessors and water commissioners, and the water commissioners are to have the right to shut off the supply at any time.

Council received favorable reports on the smoke abatement bill, the ordinance making it a misdemeanor to sell or use bogie heating units, and that fixing the conditions for the use of streetcar busses and streets for private scales.

The Council received the annual report of the smoke abatement stations from Comptroller Player and former Comptroller Sturgeon.

Two other church amendments to the bill were introduced by Commissioner of Police Johnson and Dr. W. C. Pitman.

The report is mentioned in the defacto of approximately $900,000, which confronts the ways and means committee of the House, and will be making an annual appropriation bill. To meet this deficit, Mr. Player said, it is necessary to reduce the taxation below his estimate of absolute requirements.

"It is necessary," the comptroller states, "to recognize the fact that the needs of the city cannot be met by economy. Some little, but only a little, can be done in this direction. The only way in which the deficit can be met is by the cutting down of some of the severe restrictions of the constitution and laws relating to the city's powers of taxation and investment, and removing existing barriers relating to public improvements."

Can't keep their halftone pictures out

On the P.-D. Sunday Mag.

The queerest creatures and the strangest happenings in all lands will be featured in the Sunday Post-Dispatch. Those who saw these marvelous occurrences and these unheard-of people will tell what they saw in the far corners of the earth. Africa, Asia, the Philippines, South America and hitherto untracked mountain fastnesses of North America have been drawn on for a remarkable collection of stories, some of them quaint and curious, others thrilling and blood-stirring.

Apostles of a strange religion are making converts in St. Louis. They are queer men who work day and night without pay. They have surrendered their personal freedom and have placed their lives in the hands of other men. They go where others would not dare to go, the depths of the earth, without questioning if Christ is not their master, yet they obey his injunction: "Sell all thou hast and follow me."

& St. Louis scientist has made a discovery which will save the lives of thousands of sufferers. It may render a dread disease harmless. The mountaineers gave up their secret to him; while he was making a long and perilous trip across the western country. In another part of the wilds of North America a strange race of Indians has been discovered. They are giants in stature and they have many other traits not common to the redmen of the earth.

Filipino women are among the most modest in the world, but they do not wear modesty. You will learn all about their customs and manners in a story, that will be published only in the Sunday Post-Dispatch.

A young St. Louisian recently crossed the biggest mountain range in the world. He had many exciting adventures and saw many strange things. Being an up-to-date American, he had a camera with him and he took some remarkable photographs, which will be reproduced by the Sunday Post-Dispatch half-tone process.

Terry McGovern will tell boys how to prepare their muscles for dumb-bell practice. Every movement will be pictured.

To provide revenue to meet the largely increased expenses demanded by the bill, milk fees are to be paid by dealers in milk and cream.

For dealers selling over 16 gallons a day,

All skimmed, strained and specially prepared milk of any kind must be sold in separate vessels, plainly labeled.
